About Joblink Plus and the Transition to Work Program

Our purpose is to believe in and provide support to all people, connecting them to the dignity and fulfilment made possible through education and meaningful work. We work with our local communities to provide employment opportunities with sustainable outcomes. Joblink Plus has been successfully delivering employment and community services for over thirty years and places over 8,000 people into employment and enrolls 5,000 students into vocational training annually.

YOU CAN EXPECT

- work ready participants matched to your requirements
- proactive communication, including campaigns to tell you about the latest government incentives, career expos and forums to discuss specific needs and challenges in your community
- use of innovative technology for in-depth interviewing and pre-screening
- a continued commitment to planning and supporting diversity in the workplace, including Indigenous employment and people with disability
- tailored ongoing support & mentoring to ensure that TtW participants are retained within your organisation

What we offer employers

- a comprehensive understanding of your needs, skill requirements, your workplace culture, and planning for the future
- access to our onsite interview facilities, services and video-conferencing technology
- recruitment for all kinds of jobs and assistance in accessing government incentives and programs
- we offer strategic solutions to your recruitment needs, including fully funded pre-employment programs (e.g. seasonal and project requirements)
- targeted training for TtW participants to meet the needs of identified skill gaps, both current and future, including classroom, onsite and distance learning delivery methods
- local, regional and national level information on labour market trends, regulatory requirements and Government initiatives
